Dear Harold:

It was nice talking to you last week.

Enclosed are a few clippings from area papers on the release of the Zapruder film video.

Travel plans have been firmed up. I'll be arriving on Monday, July 27th, around noon, at BWI. Leaving from there early on Thursday, July 30th. I want to go out to the archives one day. Let me know if it would be better for me to visit on any particular days. I'll plan my visit to the archives accordingly. If I don't hear, I'll assume that it is OK to knock on your door on Monday the 27th.

Looking forward to seeing you both.

Sincerely,

P.S. Got a nice phone call from your friend Bill Mills offering to share material with me. Thanks for giving him my name.
